1-day Workshop on
INNOVATIONS IN PRODUCTIVE
BUILDING SYSTEMS: CROSS LAMINATED TIMBER

Cross Laminated Timber (CLT) is an engineered wood building system which has been gaining popularity in Europe since mid-1990s due to its flexibility in design, rapid installation, reduced waste and lighter weight (when compared with concrete). It is one of the game-changing technologies which are identified as the impetus to improve high impact to construction productivity in Singapore and the region.

Renowned international experts will be sharing their valuable insights on the benefits and challenges of using CLT, case studies of overseas CLT projects, as well as conduct workshops for participants to understand more on CLT design processes.

Through this workshop, participants will be able to achieve a better understanding of the CLT system and to address the challenges of using CLT in local context.

This workshop attracts a 50% subsidy as it promotes the use of CLT as a sustainable material that increases construction productivity. Participants pay only S$150 (inclusive of GST). Do sign up to learn about this game-changing technology from international experts.
