Housing Conversations 2014: Closer Families, Stronger Ties

Singaporeans value family and togetherness, and we want to do more to help families stay close to one another. What kind of living arrangements are best for your families, and why?

Rally your family and friends to take part in this year’s Housing Conversations!

Sign up for the upcoming dialogue sessions or take a short survey to let us know your thoughts.

Singapore’s Flower Power

From roadsides, to parks and gardens, Singapore was recently covered in a riot of colour from the many blooming flowers. If you didn’t manage to catch them in person, do check out these gorgeous photos!

Pick a Bench, Pick a Place

27 uniquely-designed benches have been created from former National Stadium seat planks. Part of continual efforts to enhance & activate public spaces, find out where these benches have been installed in city and the heartlands.

Keeping Homes Affordable

What are some initiatives rolled out the last 8 years to make home ownership even more affordable to the vast majority of citizen households – especially for first-time buyers and low-income families?

Heron Watch

150 volunteers came together to spot herons in an island-wide survey, which took place over more than 70 locations around Singapore. NParks hopes to conduct this Heron Watch twice a year, so don’t miss the next one!
