Trainer: Michael Fraser Dallas MA(CANTAB), FIVM, MAPM

Michael is the senior partner in the Value Partnership following a long and successful career with Davis Langdon LLP (now an AECOM company), where he was the partner responsible for Value and Risk Management. He has conducted hundreds of successful Value and Risk studies and programmes at all stages of project development, including urban regeneration schemes, airports, transportation, new towns, buildings, bridges, oil and gas facilities, railways, infrastructure and chemical process plants, both in the UK and overseas.

He has been a qualified Trainer in Value Management since 1998 (see attached certificate). He has delivered IVM accredited training in Value Management to several hundred DL employees as well as many third party organisations.

Since its formation in 1995 Michael has been a director of APM Group Ltd, a highly reputed global accreditation and examination institute for professional qualifications.

Michael chaired the development of the British Standard in Value Management and the European/UK Value Management Training and Certification System in the 1990s

His book, ‘Value and Risk Management’ – A Guide to Best Practice, was published by Blackwell Publishing in 2006 and is regularly used in VM training in Universities.

He was lead author for the UK Cabinet Office guide to Value Management, Management of Value, MoV®, now owned by Axelos

He has spoken at many international professional events.
