About the International Green Building Conference (IGBC 2014)

Organised by the Building and Construction Authority of Singapore (BCA), IGBC 2014 is the anchor event of the Singapore Green Building Week (SGBW). It will play host to international green building experts, policy-makers, academics and built environment practitioners, for a congregation of ideas, collaboration and learning, to achieve a shared vision of a greener planet through the green building movement.

Some of the world’s fastest growing cities are in Asia, and they require green building solutions, tangible ones.

Meet and discuss green building solutions policies and plans with thought leaders, policy-makers and key government officials from several growth markets. Hear from academia on the latest research findings.

Engage and open up to new possibilities with real estate developers, architects, engineers, builders and green building professionals.

Create opportunities with more than 1,000 participants from over 30 countries at IGBC 2014.

Speakers Highlights

Plenary Speakers

Dr John Keung, Chief Executive Officer, Building and Construction Authority (Singapore)
Dr John Keung was named one of the Top 25 Newsmakers in 2013 by Engineering News-Record (ENR), a US-based magazine, for guiding Singapore as a leader in sustainable design and construction and was awarded the Public Administration Medal (Gold) in 2011 by the Singapore Government. He held many senior management positions at the Ministry of National Development, the Housing and Development Board (HDB) and the Urban Redevelopment Authority (URA). He is also an Adjunct Professor in Urban Planning at the National University of Singapore.

Stephen Selkowitz, Senior Advisor, Building Science & Windows and Envelope Group Leader, Building Technology and Urban Systems Department, Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory (USA)
As an internationally recognised expert on window technologies, façade systems and daylighting, Stephen Selkowitz collaborates with R&D teams worldwide. At LBNL, he leads a multidisciplinary team of 40 material scientists, physicists, engineers and architects in the development and demonstration of energy efficient technologies, systems, processes and tools. This year in April, he won ENR’s 49th Award of Excellence, its highest honour, for inspiring a green building research revolution triggered by the construction of FLEXLAB where he is the Principal Investigator.

Mark Carroll, Partner, Renzo Piano Building Workshop (Italy)
With over 32 years at RPBW, Mark has overseen projects including Aquarium and Nave Italia in Genova; the Business Center and Helifport for the Fiat Lingotto Factory, Aurora Place in Sydney; The High Museum in Atlanta; the new California Academy of Science in San Francisco; and the Kimbell Art Museum expansion in Fort Worth. In 2013, he received the Architecture Alumni Achievement Award from his alma mater, the Clemson University of South Carolina.

Alistair Guthrie, Global Sustainable Buildings Design Leader, Arup (UK)
Alistair Guthrie has been involved in the design of arts and culture, education, commercial and transport buildings worldwide with expertise in the application of building physics and micro-climate design. His 30 years of collaboration with Renzo Piano Building Workshop includes projects such as the Menil Collection and Kimbell Museum in Texas, the National Performing Arts and Library Complex in Athens and the LEED Platinum rated California Academy of Sciences.

Organiser

The Building and Construction Authority of Singapore champions the development of an excellent built environment in Singapore. BCA's mission is to shape a safe, high quality, sustainable and friendly built environment, as these are the four elements where BCA has significant influence. In doing so, it aims to differentiate Singapore’s built environment from those of other cities and contribute to a better quality of life for everyone in Singapore. Hence its vision is to have "a future-ready built environment for Singapore, our distinctive global city." Together with its education and research arm, the BCA Academy of The Built Environment, BCA works closely with its industrial players to develop skills and expertise that help shape the best built environment in Singapore.

Co-located Events

BEX Asia is Southeast Asia’s premier business exhibition for the sustainable built environment. It provides a one-stop sourcing solution for cutting-edge technologies in building design and architecture for the future of greener communities. It is an event that enhances your insights and competitive edge into the world of Build Green. BEX Asia brings together skilled professionals, key industry practitioners, speciers and buyers from the region, to network and create business opportunities to build greener communities for a greener future. BEX Asia will be co-located with the exhibitions, designinteriors 2014 and Lighting Asia.
