Fair Introduction:

After 10 years' efforts, covering 1.9 billion people, with 6 trillion GDP and 4.5 trillion trade volume, the China - ASEAN Free Trade Area was fully established on January 1, 2010. The average tariff between China and ASEAN is reducing from 9.8% to 0.1%! In order to help Asian enterprises to catch up with this historical opportunity, 2011 China - ASEAN (Thailand) commodity Fair” (hereinafter referred to as the Thailand fair, or the fair) will be grand held during November 8-11, 2011 at Impact Exhibition & Convention Center, Bangkok, Thailand, at Hall 5.

2011 China - ASEAN (Thailand) commodity Fair will span over 10,000 square meters, some 500 exhibition booths featuring the top quality building material, agricultural machinery, construction machinery, auto parts and electrical products. With years of experience in hosts Canton Fair, China Foreign Trade Centre (Group) provides strong support for the promotion work. It is expected will have more than ten thousand professional buyers from the Asian region to visit this fair.

The exhibition also draws a great attention from the Thailand government. Jointly, Thai chamber of commerce, Thailand Convention and Exhibition Bureau and other relevant local business associations will give full support to the Thailand fair. A new platform will be created for the exhibitors and enterprises from ASEAN to build up cooperation which including: import and export trade, technology transfer and trade agency.
