Synopsis

This seminar will provide an overview of some of the latest cases decided in the courts in 2015/2016 which affect the construction industry. Participants will be able to update themselves on the law that would be applicable to them.

These would include the latest cases on performance bonds and how payment may be stopped, the effectiveness of architect’s certificates – both payment certificates and completion certificates, the new approach to liquidated damages being construed as penalties, and more developments on the law relating to adjudications under the Security of Payment Act.

Some of the specific issues that will be discussed include:

i) Are all performance bonds the same? The difference between on-demand bonds and indemnity bonds.
ii) How may payments under the bonds be stopped? We will focus the discussion on unconscionability, and how it may be proven.
iii) Under what situations may architect’s certificates – whether payment certificates or completion certificates – be considered invalid?
iv) Under what situations may liquidated damages be considered too much and hence not claimable?
v) After a final claim has been submitted, can any further claim be submitted for adjudication under the Security of Payment Act?

Speaker—Session 1

Edwin has argued both major courtroom disputes and arbitrations. He is one of the founding partners of Eldan Law LLP. He is recommended for Infrastructure and energy (AsiaLaw Profiles (2007)) and is cited as a leading Singapore Construction law practitioner in Euromoney’s Guide to the World’s Leading Construction Lawyers (2013 & 2015).

Edwin is an accredited adjudicator with the Singapore Mediation Centre, and a member of the Construction Adjudication Accreditation Committee, which oversees the selection and assessment of adjudicators. He is extremely familiar with the adjudication regime, having acted as Counsel in numerous adjudications. He has also acted as Adjudicator and Review Adjudicator, hearing adjudications and adjudication reviews. He successfully argued the landmark Court of Appeal case of Lee Wee Lick Terence v Chua Say Eng.

Apart from his active legal practice, Edwin is also an Adjunct Assistant Professor with the National University of Singapore and is a trainer for the Singapore Building & Construction Authority, on Construction Law.

Edwin is the author of Building Contract Law in Singapore, 2nd Edition (2003), a co-author of Law & Practice of Injunctions in Singapore (2004), co-author of Confidentiality in Arbitration (2007), and one of the general editors of the annual Singapore Construction Adjudication Review.
Kirindeep Singh is a partner in Rodyk & Davidson LLP’s Litigation & Arbitration Practice Group. Kirin graduated with LLB (Hons) from the University of Leeds in 1995 and with a BCL from Oxford University in 1997.

Kirin’s primary practice areas are construction and engineering, energy, arbitration and general civil and commercial litigation. In construction and engineering, Kirin has been involved in numerous disputes in adjudication, arbitration and litigation. He represents owners, developers, consultants, and contractors in construction and engineering disputes under standard form and bespoke contracts. He has acted for parties in various energy disputes in the region and major infrastructure, building and redevelopment projects in Singapore such as the MRT North-East Line Projects, the MRT Circle Line Projects, the Deep Tunnel Sewage System, the construction of Khoo Teck Phuat Hospital and the redevelopment and expansion of the National University Hospital. In addition, Kirin has been involved in the drafting of various construction and engineering contracts, EPC Contracts pertaining to the Oil & Gas industry and has often advised on project planning and risk management issues from inception to completion of the project.

Besides advising local clients in various disputes both in Court and at arbitration, Kirin has been involved in various regional matters and commercial arbitrations as well, including those in Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand, Mauritius, India and Hong Kong.

Kirin has handled a wide range of civil and commercial litigation work, including contractual claims, claims in tort, employment matters, insurance-related claims, professional negligence, performance bonds, equity and trusts, banking work, property-related matters, landlord and tenant disputes and professional disciplinary proceedings.

Kirin is a contributor to the Singapore Precedents of Pleadings and speaks on a regular basis at various arbitration and construction and engineering conferences in Singapore and overseas. His teaching and training experience includes being an Associate Lecturer for Construction Law, Bachelor of Building and Project Management Programme, SIM University, teacher and trainer for the Law Society of Singapore’s SILE Advocacy Course and tutor for the National University of Singapore’s Trial Advocacy Course.

Recently, his paper “Arbitration And Public Policy - Is The Unruly Horse Being Tamed?” was awarded Excellent Legal Paper Award at the IPBA 2013 Conference in Seoul, South Korea. Kirin is named as a Recognised Practitioner for Construction, Chambers Asia-Pacific 2016 and in the Euromoney Guide to the World’s Leading Construction Lawyers (2nd Edition) for his construction practice. Kirin is also the Chair of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association’s International Construction Projects Committee and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

Lee Keng Seng is a Director (Quantity Surveying) at Surbana Jurong Consultant Pte Ltd and a member of Singapore Institute of Surveyors and Valuers. He holds a Bachelor of Science (Building), NUS, Graduate Diploma in Business Administration, SIM and also a Master degree in Construction Economics and Management from University College London, United Kingdom.

As a practitioner, Keng Seng has over 25 years experience, in various roles and capacities for developers, consultants and contractor, in the areas of cost and contracts management for development and construction projects of different types, size and complexities. He led and supervises QS teams in the provision of multi-disciplinary design and QS consultancy services. In addition, he has also undertaken and responsible for various roles in feasibility studies, design management, procurement management, project management and facilities management for projects of different nature and scale.
