

12 Dec 2011

Dear Sustainable Development / Built Environment Professionals,

As part of the continuous efforts by BCA Academy, the education and research arm of the Building and Construction Authority (BCA), to update industry firms and stakeholders on the development of the industry, we would like to invite you to attend a “Industry Update – Greening Singapore’s Built Environment” on 5th January 2012 (Thursday), 3.30pm at MND Function Hall, Maxwell Road. Following this, there will be a information session on the University of Nottingham-BCA collaboration for Master of Science in Sustainable Building Design programme* to share how our industry professionals can adopt an integrated approach to sustainable building design and contribute towards sustainable development. Please refer to the attached flyer for more information of the sessions.

BCA Academy warmly extends our invitation to you to join us at this valuable session. The course fee is waived and a light refreshment will be served. Kindly click on the RSVP link at the bottom of the flyer to register.

*The Master of Science programme has been conducted since 2009.

Best Regards,
BCA Academy
