The IES-WiSER Forum serves as a platform to raise advocacy for diversity and equality in the engineering profession. It focuses on empowering and promoting women leadership in the engineering industry and professional fields, creating greater awareness of women in this field.

Come join us and learn from these endeavouring women leaders of the engineering world. They will be sharing their personal experiences as a lady and their technical expertise as a female engineer.

Kindly refer to the our booklet for more information.