Workplace Safety & Health (WSH) Seminar on Permit-To-Work System for High-Risk Construction Work

For high risk construction work, a permit to work is required. This is stipulated in Part III of the Workplace Safety and Health (Construction) Regulations. In order to have a better understanding of the "Permit to Work" system, a seminar will be organised by SCAL Academy for the various stakeholders in the Construction sector. For example, developers, consultants, contractors, worksite personnel and WSH personnel. The details of the seminar are:

Date : 31 October 2008

Time : 9.00 am to 5.00 pm

Venue : Construction House, No 1, Bukit Merah Lane 2, Singapore 159760
